*The promises of the LORD I will sing forever,
 my mouth shall proclaim your faithfulness.
 For you have said, My kindness is established forever.
 In heaven you have confirmed your faithfulness.
 Blessed the people who know
 the light of your countenance, O LORD.
 At your name they rejoice all the day,
 and through your justice they are exalted.
 Forever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.*

PARISH NEWS

OLGC Summer Outreach During the summer months, many school-aged children will no longer be receiving the breakfast or lunch they typically receive throughout the year while attending school.

To help fill that void, our local charities have asked if we could donate additional kid-friendly food items during July and August. Shelf-stable items such as cereal, pancake mix, fruit cups, raisins, juices, jello, pudding, peanut butter & jelly, macaroni & cheese, can pasta, soup, tuna fish, etc. would be most helpful. You may leave your donated food items on tables in our Church Hall which we will deliver each week to Mount Carmel Guild and Catholic Charities of Trenton.

Please pass the word around to your friends and neighbors as well. The OLGC Social Services Com-mittee and local Knights of Columbus members thank you for your help with this effort.

Volunteers for Morris Hall The Gift Shop at Morris Hall needs part-time volunteers,

Located on Route 206 in the heart of Lawrenceville, Morris Hall is home to nearly 200 residents residing in St. Mary's Assisted Living and St. Joseph's Skilled Nursing Center. The Gift shop, staffed by volunteers is open from 10:00 AM to 5:00 PM and is an integral part of these facilities. All proceeds from the shop benefit the residents of Morris Hall. Shifts generally last two hours . . . but, hours are flexible. Some volunteers work weekly, some monthly, and others fill-in when regular volunteers are unavailable. Training will be provided. For more information, contact Margie Geiger, Gift Shop Manager at 201 213 6736.

PARISH NEWS

Campanelli Handbell Concert The Campanelli Handbell Ensemble from Tallinn, Estonia will present a concert at Our Lady of Sorrows Church at 7:00 PM on Sunday, July 23rd. Campanelli performs on 5 octaves of handbells, 7 octaves of handchimes, and Cymbells. With conductor Inna Lai, they have performed extensively throughout Europe and Russia, and have appeared numerous times on TV and radio. The concert will feature the works of Hamilton composer Susan T. Nelson in addition to original compositions by noted Estonian composers in musical styles from traditional to jazz, contemporary to 21st Century. The concert is free and open to the public. Visit www.susantnelson.com for more information.

Iron Mikes by the Sea All graduates of St. Anthony High School, McCorristin Catholic High School, and Trenton Catholic Academy are invited to Iron Mikes by the Sea featuring alumna, attorney and author, Maria P. Imbalzano. Join us at The Essex and Sussex, 700 Ocean Avenue, Spring Lake, NJ from 1:00 to 4:00 PM on Sunday, July 16th for a buffet lunch and discussion. The cost of the event is $25. Maria's books, Dancing in the Sand and Unchained Memories will be available for purchase. A portion of book sales will be donated to the TCA Scholarship Fund. To attend, please contact Tracey Destribats, 586 3705, X 135.

Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were indeed buried with him through baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might live in newness of life.

If, then, we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him. We know that Christ, raised from the dead, dies no more; death no longer has power over him. As to his death, he died to sin once and for all; as to his life, he lives for God. Consequently, you too must think of yourselves as dead to sin and living for God in Christ Jesus.

13TH SUNDAY ORDINARY TIME

Stained glass window depicting Jesus imparting Wisdom.

Whoever receives you receives me,
and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me.

Whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me.

*Whoever finds his life will lose it,
and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.*

*Whoever receives you receives me,
and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me.*

*Whoever receives a prophet because he is a prophet will receive a prophet's reward,
and whoever receives a righteous man
because he is a righteous man will receive a righteous man's reward.*

*And whoever gives only a cup of cold water
to one of these little ones to drink,
amen, I say to you, he will surely not lose his reward.*

Mt 10

Christ commanded the apostles to leave everything in the world that they held most dear, adding: Whoever does not take up his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. For those who belong to Christ have crucified their lower nature with its sinful passions and desires.

No one is worthy of him who refuses to take up his cross, that is to say, to share the Lord's passion, death, burial, and resurrection, and to follow him by living out the mystery of faith in the newly received grace of the Spirit: Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. This means that thanks to the power of the word and the renunciation of past sins, temporal gains are death to the soul, and temporal losses salvation. Apostles must therefore take death into their new life and nail their sins to the Lord's cross. They must confront their persecutors with contempt for things present, holding fast to their freedom by a glorious confession of faith, and shunning any gain that would harm their souls. They should know that no power over their souls has been given to anyone, and that by suffering loss in this short life they will achieve immortality.

Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me: Christ gives us all a love for his teaching and a disposition to treat our teachers with courtesy. Earlier he had shown the danger facing those who refused to receive the apostles by requiring these to shake the dust off their feet as a testimony against them; now he commends those who do receive the apostles, assuring them of a greater recompense than they might have expected for their hospitality, and he teaches that since he still acts as mediator, when we receive him God enters us through him because he comes from God.

Thus whoever receives the apostles receives Christ, and whoever receives Christ receives God the Father, since what is received in the apostles is nothing else than what is received in Christ; nor is there anything in Christ but what is in God. Through this disposition of graces to receive the apostles is to receive God, because Christ is in them and God is in Christ.

Hilary, 367
