RCIA – BECOMING CATHOLIC

What is R.C.I.A.?

R.C.I.A. (or simply "RCIA") stands for the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, the process by which an adult person is initiated into the Catholic Church, through Baptism, Confirmation, and First Holy Communion. Through this process the adult is formed in the Christian faith, with the local parish community serving as both catechists and models. Who is in RCIA? Unbaptized adults, those baptized in another Christian faith, baptized Catholics who need to complete the initiation process with the sacraments of Communion and/or Confirmation.

Do you know a someone who would like to know more about RCIA? Please prayerfully consider who might be interested in entering more fully into the Catholic faith and invite them to join us. Please contact Deacon Steve at 609-947-0587 or E-Mail: deaconstevenszmutko@gmail.com to set up an informal and confidential conversation to begin the process.

OLGC Summer Food Drive Program

During the summer months, many school-aged children will no longer be receiving the breakfast or lunch they typically receive throughout the year while attending school. To help fill that void, our local charities have asked if we could donate additional kid-friendly food items during July and August.

Shelf-stable items such as cereal, pancake mix, fruit cups, raisins, juices, jello, pudding, peanut butter & jelly, macaroni & cheese, canned pasta, soup, tuna fish, etc. would be most helpful. You may leave your donated items on the food tables in our Church Hall, which we will deliver each week to Mount Carmel Guild and Catholic Charities of Trenton. Please pass the word around to your friends and neighbors as well.

The OLGC Social Services Committee members thank you in advance for your help with this effort!

COINS FOR CHARITY

Containers will be at the entrances to the church next weekend, July 7th and 8th. Also, please continue to place your Marrazzo's receipts in the containers at the entrances to the church. Thank you for your generosity.

Senior Spirituality

Wednesday, July 18th, you're invited to attend, The Senior Spirituality and So Much More Day, featuring the Catholic Grandparents Association and Msgr. Sam Sirianni, presenting Passing on the Faith to the Next Generation and Bishop O'Connell will celebrate Mass with us! We will hear the Doo-Wops and the Bop-Shoo-Bops of the early days of Rock 'n Roll, from the Rock 'n Rhythm! And we'll enjoy a bountiful Lunch by Dolce and Clemente! Location: St. Gregory the Great, Hamilton Square! Don't be Square, be there! to register, or to download the mail-in flyer! ### Holiday Masses:

I have asked the Daily Mass goers whether they would be open to having Mass a little later on major civil holidays that fall on weekdays, and I got some positive/mixed feedback. Most were open to the idea, as a way to make Mass attendance on those days convenient to more people when some of you may be off from work or school. If this is something that would be attractive to you, please let me know. The proposal is to move Masses for days such as Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Thanksgiving...etc, to 8:30 or 9:00AM.

However, because there is not enough time to get everyone's input for this cycle, the daily Mass on Wednesday July 4, 2018 will be at its normal time of 7:30AM. You can let me know when you see me or leave me a message in the parish office.
Fr. Mike

THE ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL – IN ACTION!

Clergy and Religious Administration -Vocations
God calls each person to a life of holiness and service, whether single, married, ordained or consecrated. The Diocesan Ministry of Vocations provides discernment opportunities, encouragement, support, education and resources for those responding to God's call through the ministerial priesthood. We are committed to fostering an environment where vocations to the priesthood are valued and nurtured within the domestic church of the family and the local parish community. The priest is a servant of the Lord, giving his life to worship, prayer and commitment to God's people. Your gift helps to amplify the call to serve. You can make your gift at www.dioceseoftrenton.org/catholicappeal, by completing a card found at the church doors, or by mailing a gift to Annual Catholic Appeal 701 Lawrenceville Rd. Trenton, NJ 08648.

OLGC is at 73% of our 2018 Goal ($24,101/$33,000)
Thank you for your generosity and thoughtfulness towards this important campaign.

Reflection

Several weeks ago, on Father's Day weekend, I had the opportunity to make my annual diaconate retreat. For many years, I have spent several days at Malvern Retreat House – Saint Joseph in the Hills in Malvern PA. It is a beautiful place to reflect, refresh, and rejoice, with men of all ages, backgrounds and experiences, united by our Catholic faith in an atmosphere of prayer, silence, and community. I have had the pleasure of meeting priests, fellow deacons and laymen, many of whom travel great distances to take time from their busy lives to gather in worship and renewal. It is wonderful to set aside one's cares and burdens and allow Our Lord to penetrate our hearts with his healing graces. We have allowed our lives to become so complicated and hectic, that it often seems as if we spend our days pirouetting feverishly in frenetic busyness. To be healed, we must take the time to focus on Christ, and allow him to enter into our lives. Jesus reaches out to us; in turn, we must reach out to him with open arms and open hearts.

Today's reading from the Gospel of Saint Mark concerns two healings: first, the restoration of Jairus' daughter; second, the cure of the woman suffering from hemorrhages. Both are great examples of Jesus' great mercy, and the power of faith. Although the restoring of life to a child may appear to be the more "spectacular" miracle, the cure of the woman is no less profound on several levels.

As Jesus journeyed to the house of Jairus to tend to his daughter surrounded by crowds, who were pressing in upon him, a woman who was not only seriously ill, but also deemed unclean by virtue of her flow of blood, said, "If I touch even his garments, I shall be made well." And, when she did so, she was immediately healed. In addition to physical relief, she was also changed inwardly. According to Mosaic Law, the woman's chronic bleeding made her and all that she touched unclean, leaving her unable to participate in society and even public worship. By merely touching the hem of Jesus' garment, through her desperate faith she was made whole in body, mind and spirit. As Jesus told her tenderly, "Daughter, your faith has saved you. Go in peace and be cured of your affliction."

Not all healings are physical. As mortal human beings, we will all pass away from this life; age, infirmity, suffering and death are part of our earthly existence. And yet, the death of our physical bodies is not the end, for we are destined to eternal life through Jesus Christ. In the first reading from the Book of Wisdom, we heard: "For God formed man to be imperishable; the image of his own nature he made him. But by the envy of the devil, death entered the world, and they who belong to his company experience it." However, those who place their faith in Our Lord Jesus Christ and live in his life will be saved, destined to live in the Kingdom of Our Heavenly Father. The darkness of death is vanquished by the light of Christ. As we heard in today's Responsorial Psalm: "Sing praise to the LORD, you his faithful ones, and give thanks to his holy name. For his anger lasts but a moment; a lifetime, his good will. At nightfall, weeping enters in, but with the dawn, rejoicing."
