31ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME ~ OCTOBER 30, 2022

31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

2 Mac 7:1-2,9-14; Ps 17:1,5-6,8,15; 2Ths 2:16-3:5; Lk 20:27-38

All who were called by the Lord obeyed his summons at once, provided love of earthly things did not weigh them down. For worldly ties are a weight upon the mind and understanding, and for those bound by them it is difficult to hear the sound of God's call. But the apostles, and the righteous people and patriarchs before them, were not like this. They obeyed like people really alive, and set out lightly, because no worldly possessions held them bound as though by heavy fetters.

Nothing can bind or impede the soul that senses God: it is open and ready, so that the light of the divine voice, each time it comes, finds the soul capable of receiving it. Our Lord also called Zacchaeus from the sycamore he had climbed, and immediately Zacchaeus hastened to come down. And that is a marvelous thing — our Lord had not spoken to him, and Zacchaeus had not seen the Lord with the eyes of the body, and yet he believed in him simply on the word of others. This was because in him faith had been preserved in its natural life and health. He showed his faith by believing in our Lord as soon as he heard he was coming; and the simplicity of his faith was seen when he promised to give half his goods to the poor, and to restore fourfold what he had taken by fraud. For if Zacchaeus' spirit had not been filled at that moment with the simplicity proper to faith, he would not have made this promise to Jesus, and he would not have given out and distributed, in a brief space of time, what his labors had amassed over many years.

Simplicity scattered on all sides what had been accumulated by cunning; purity of soul dispersed what had been obtained by guile; faith made a public renunciation of what had been found and appropriated by unrighteousness. For faith's only possession is God, and it refuses to own anything else besides him. Faith sets no store by possessions of any kind, apart from God, its one lasting possession. Faith has been implanted in us so that we may find God and possess nothing but him, and so that we may recognize that everything that exists is harmful to us apart from him.

Knights of Columbus
"Coats for Kids" Program

Ewing Council 3756 is helping to provide warmth to needy young children by participating in the Knights of Columbus "Coats for Kids" program. The goal of the "Coats for Kids" program as well as our goal is to ensure that needy children in our Parishes and surrounding communities will have their own new winter coat. A donation of just $20.00 will purchase one coat and go a long way in reaching our goal. Think about that smile on the children's faces when they receive a warm winter coat for this winter. Any business owner or parishioner who may also wish to participate should do so by sending a check made payable to the Ewing Knights of Columbus Council 3756 and mail to:

OCTOBER, THE MONTH OF THE ROSARY

The month of October is dedicated to the Most Holy Rosary. The liturgical feast of Our Lady of the Rosary is celebrated annually on October 7. This Feast was instituted to honor the Blessed Virgin Mary in gratitude, for the protection that she gives the Church in answer, to the praying of the Rosary by the faithful.

During the month of October, let us consider this beautiful prayer of the Rosary as a means that we too can use in order to draw closer to Jesus and Mary by meditating on the great mysteries of our salvation.

We invite you to be a part of our October Parish Project "30,000" Hail Mary's for peace and healing of the world".

Say a Rosary and add a Rosary bead to Mary's Altar (provided) in Church. Unable to come to church please call Mary Arcadipane at 609-883-7620 and she will add the rosary you offer to the altar for you. Last year we well surpassed our goal of 20,000 so this year our goal is to offer 30,000 Hail Mary's.
